

- The 14th of Abib (sunrise) is the First Day of Unleavened Bread when Yahusha was crucified—the same day Israel left Egypt, and when Isaac was to be sacrificed (Jubilees 17).

Bitter Herbs & Traditions

- Exodus 12:8 calls for eating with bitter herbs, but it gives no specifics. There is no need to follow rabbinic tradition.
- Use any local bitter herb. In the Philippines, for example, Ampalaya (bitter gourd) is ideal.

The Feast Is a Meal

- Passover is a Feast — a communal meal of remembrance, reflection, and worship.
- This is when Messiah instituted Communion, during the Passover meal with His disciples, sometimes called the “Last Supper.”

Scripture for the Last Supper (Passover)

- Matthew 26:17–29
- Mark 14:12–26
- Luke 22:7–20

Yahusha did not create a new tradition but established Passover observance as eternal, continuing through Communion.

---

Recommended Video Studies

1. Answers on Sabbath Part 2 – The 7 Days of Unleavened Bread Prove the Day Begins at Sunrise
  2. The Miraculous First Day of Unleavened Bread
  3. Isaac’s Sacrifice – Jubilees 17: Day of Firstborn Offering
  4. Passover in the New Testament 1A
  5. Passover in the New Testament 1B
-

